Zeta Theta Spotlight

Brothers, meet Dixon Williams. As a brother of the most recent Upsilon class, Dixon is a strong leader in Lambda Chi and participates in several campus events and activities. In addition to being the current Tau of Zeta Theta, he is also a morale captain of Up Til Dawn and is an IFC delegate for our chapter. Dixon was also chosen as an Orientation Guide for this upcoming year and is an active member of the Memphis Blue Crew. In his free time, Dixon coaches basketball and works as a scorekeeper at his church. He is a genuine fan of relaxing with the brothers on a regular basis and loves active involvement in sports, primarily basketball.

Way to represent the chapter well, Dixon (left)!

President's Corner

Brothers,

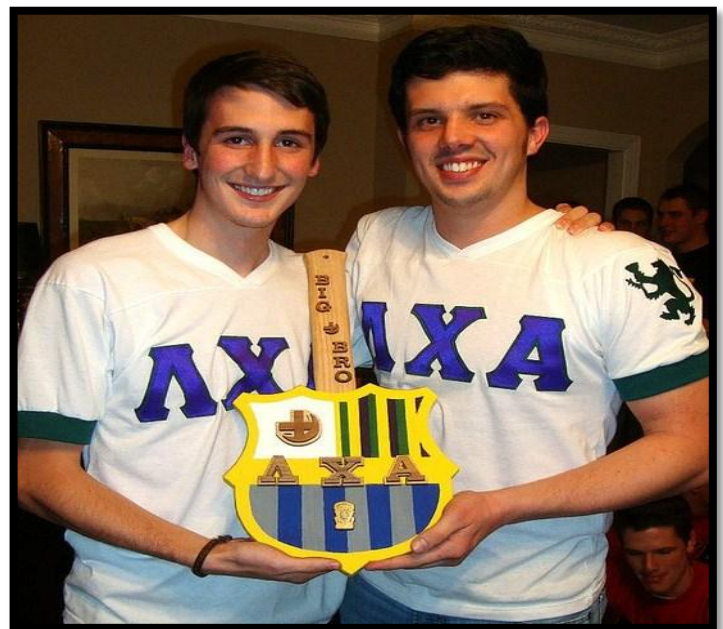

I have the opportunity and privilege of leading a great group this year and I hope to work hard to pick up right where the great brothers who have come before left off. We have an exciting semester coming up and we will definitely be working harder than ever to live up to our predecessors.

I will not forget what Brother A.J. Walton said this past I week: "It takes more to be a Lambda Chi because more is expected of a Lambda Chi."

Over this next year, I will be working diligently towards the growth of our crescent and the continued greatness we have been lucky to have on campus.

I look forward to hearing from many of you and wish you all a good year in all your endeavors.

Always in ZAX,
Carlisle Jasper

We would like to issue a very special thank you to Glenn Miller for providing the photos for this issue.

Initiation Report

The Zeta Theta chapter would like to welcome its twenty-one new brothers of the Upsilon class. After an educational semester and Initiation Week, the newest class boasts an outstanding 3.35 GPA average, not losing a single member due to grade eligibility. Help us in congratulating our new members!

Items of Note

Campus participation is still a focal point within Zeta Theta. We would like to congratulate Jake Strawn, Juan Gomez, Carlisle Jasper, Dixon Williams, and Alex Galbraith for achieving positions as Orientation Guides. Let's also applaud Brother Hunter Williams for being selected to the Frosh Camp Executive Board as Head Camp Counselor as well as the many brothers applying for counselor positions!

Glenn Miller has also been hard at work updating the fraternity web site. Do take a look at www.lxamemphis.com.
